Welcome to today's visitors Hull City as we return to Burnden Park after our 5-1 victory at Sheffield United last Saturday.

That game was one of the best displays I have seen since I came to Bolton and the players were very disappointed to go into the dressing room at the interval only 2-1 up.

We could have had many more goals and Neil Whatmore was unlucky to hit a post twice before the interval.

Our return to form after the defeats by the bottom two clubs Millwall and Burnley started in the FA Cup third round at Spurs — our promotion rivals.

We played well there to get a draw and, of course, won the Burnden replay 2-1.

Keith Burkinshaw, the Spurs manager said after the replay that he felt we could have regained our confidence against his side and he was proved to be quite right.

Over the past couple of weeks we have been plagued by injuries with Tony Dunne and Paul Jones out of action and players like Peter Nicholson, Roy Greaves and Ray Train all needing treatment.

Hopefully, all this is behind us now and we look forward to continuing our good form.

I have been very encouraged by the way Neil Whatmore and Frank Worthington have started to open up defences and we are again creating the chances which can't be bad.

Ian Greaves

EDWIN BLACKBURN (Goalkeeper). — Even though he did not appear with the first team last season, this young goalkeeper has a great future in the game. A North-easterner who was originally an apprentice, is now, in his fourth season as a contract player.

PETER DANIEL (Defender). — A local born player, who attracted the attention of other clubs through his sound yet exciting display in the right-back position. Likes to move forward and uses his exceptional pace to great advantage. Represented England in the Under-21 Internationals last season.

ROGER deVRIES (Defender). — Another local born player, who played his first senior game over seven years ago. Has now played almost 250 games for Hull and has proved himself to be a good, strong tackling defender.

BILLY BREMNER (Midfield). — Former Leeds United and Scottish 'star'. Billy is probably one of the most well known players still playing today. Has represented Scotland 54 times, with nearly 600 League appearances for Leeds United. As team captain of Hull City his drive and enthusiasm for the game are clear for everyone to see.

IAN DOBSON (Defender). — A strong and tough-tackling central defender who made his debut in 1975/76 season. Local born, he scored his first League goals at Plymouth, when used up front in an attempt to end last season's goal famine.

STUART CROFT (Defender). — A North-easterner, he is now in his third season as a regular central defender. Since his debut can always be relied upon for a consistent display in the back-four.

GORDON NISBET (Midfield). — Signed from West Bromwich Albion where he played in the full-back position, but has now been converted into a midfield player. Was a regular first teamer.

MALCOLM LORD. — A very experienced player who is also an F.A. Full Badge Coach, and a Member of the P.F.A. Executive. Has now been with Hull twelve years. Another player who missed more than half of the season through injury.

JOHN HAWLEY (Striker). — Another local-born player, John is a strong and adventurous striker who only signed terms last season, after being one of the few amateurs in League football. Missed the last half of last season with a knee injury.

BRUCE BANNISTER (Striker). — Signed in the past close season, Bruce has returned 'home' to Yorkshire, after having seen service with Plymouth Argyle, Bristol Rovers and Bradford City.

DAVE STEWART (Midfield). — A Northern Ireland Youth International. He is a skilful player who made his first team debut whilst only 16.

CHRIS GALVIN (Midfield) — Joined Hull City from Leeds United in 1973, and has a lot of skill to go with experience, but did not command a regular place last season and had a period 'on loan' with York City.

ALAN WARBOYS. — A tall, strong and experienced striker in the old mould. Previously saw service with Doncaster, Sheffield Wednesday, Cardiff City, Sheffield United, Bristol Rovers and Fulham. Renews former partnership with Bruce Bannister.

VINCENT GRIMES (Midfield). — Whilst born in Scunthorpe, he has progressed after playing as an amateur in the Junior and Reserve teams. Had a most unfortunate spell of injuries last season.

PAUL HAIGH (Defender). — A young central defender who is in his third season as a contract player. Was selected for the England Youth Squad, and gained an Under-21 cap, in the close season tour of Scandinavia, following his first season of League football.

ROBERT McDONALD (Striker). — Hull-born, this tall and strong striker, signed contract terms with the club during last season after serving his apprenticeship. Made his debut towards the end of last season.

DAVE GIBSON (Midfield). — A young North-easterner who made a tremendous impact on his debut. An exciting midfield player who likes nothing better than going forward to join in an attack.

Today's Visitors

A depressing run of nine League games without a win left Hull City facing the New Year in grave danger of relegation.

The Tigers lost all four holiday games and now manager Bobby Collins and his men face a long fight to hold onto the Second Division place the club has held since 1966.

Bobby Collins, the former Leeds and Scotland player and one-time manager of Morton and Huddersfield, took over from John Kaye earlier this season and, not unexpectedly, he has been making a few changes in the side in an endeavour to halt their losing run.

One move gave the loyal number two goalkeeper, Eddie Blackburn, another chance to show what he can do in League football — just three years after making his previous League appearance. The man to make way for him was Jeff Wealands, the number one choice for almost five years.

The defence, too, has undergone changes. For much of the early part of the season the back four lined up: Peter Daniel, or Gordon Nisbet, Ian Dobson, David Roberts and Roger De Vries. But Stuart Croft has come in at central defence when injuries have struck and Nisbet has sometimes moved forward to play in midfield.

Nisbet is one of the game's most versatile players. He made his first appearance for West Bromwich as a goalkeeper! He later returned at right-back and has played on many occasions in midfield.

One of the key figures in midfield is, of course, Billy Bremner, who skippered Leeds United to all their great triumphs of the 'sixties and early 'seventies and who won 54 Scottish caps. Billy played the last of his 586 League games for Leeds early last season and then joined the Tigers on a £40,000 transfer.

Malcolm Lord was recalled to the midfield in the New Year, to the exclusion of Chris Galvin, and Paul Haigh is usually the third midfield player.

Hull this season paid Fulham £25,000 for forward Alan Warboys in the hope that he could strike up his old goal-scoring partnership with Bruce Bannister, a £15,000 close-season signing from Plymouth. These two spent just over four years together at Bristol Rovers in the early 'seventies and during that time hit 134 goals between them!

From 1972/73 onwards their joint total for Rovers was 32, 43, 22, 18 and 19.

There have not yet been any signs of this pair quite matching those past deeds — they have netted ten between them so far — and Warboys has recently had to drop out through injury. This gave John Hawley the chance to come back into the attack with Dave Stewart on the wing.

In view of their precarious League position, Hull were not too worried about their third round FA Cup defeat by Leicester City. At least they are now free of all other commitments as they try to improve their position in the Second Division table.

Hull reached the fourth round of the League Cup after victories over Southport and Oldham. They finally went out 5-1 at Arsenal, the club led by former Hull manager Terry Neill.

Hull City are now the Second Division's oldest inhabitants as all the other clubs have either gone up or down since they gained promotion from the Third Division in 1966.

Last season, however, they were close to relegation at one stage and now they once again face the possibility of a return to the Third Division.

Hull City F.C. was founded in 1904 and elected to the Second Division of the Football League a year later. In 1910 they missed promotion to the First Division on goal-average and have never again been so close. They reached the semi-final of the F.A. Cup in 1930 when they lost only 0-1 to mighty Arsenal.

Since then they have spent their time switching between the Second and Third Divisions.
